

Don't take away the best thing that has happened to radio. It is our right as a consumer to have satellite radio since the local stations are so BAD. I don't want to listen to bad quality and all commercials. Local stations need to learn how to improve not how to squash the competition.